The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 21-23, 27, 29, 30, 33 and 35-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Diamond.

See Fig. 2 where a source of sound waves is down stream of the speakers 40, the sound wave guides are the speaker wires. The claim 2 sound emitting orifice is seen at 36 and its surrounding structure. The claim 3 perforations are seen at 52.

Re: claim 27, the wires or the insulation surrounding the wires constitutes a conduit.

Claims 29, 30, 33 and 35-37 are rejected as claims 21-23 supra.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 28 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Diamond, as applied supra, in view of Lancon.

Lancon teaches the use of sound wave conduits 4a and 4b to transmit sound in a headrest. It would have been obvious to employ this scheme in or in lieu of that taught by Diamond, as to employ one known sound transmitting scheme for another would have been prima facie obvious to the ordinary artisan.

Art Unit: 3751

Claims 24-26, 31, 32 and 30-40 stand withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 8/11/04.
